

Animal Helpers Badge Workshop

Learn about the many ways raptors have helped humans throughout history while earning your Animal Helpers Badge. Scouts will have the opportunity to meet several trained raptors, while learning about the history of falconry and how trained raptors have been utilized by people in the past as well as present.

Age Level: Cadette Level Scouts

Date/Time: Saturday, May 19th, 2:00 - 3:30pm

Location: Girls Scouts San Diego, Baker & Baum Room, 1231 Upas St, San Diego, CA 92103

Cost: $12 per scout

Registration: <https://animalhelpersbadge.eventbrite.com>

Email: danny@raptorinstitute.org with any questions

**This is NOT a drop off event, adult supervision and safety Activity Checkpoint girl to adult ratios will be met by troop leaders and parents/guardians.*

\*Actual animal helpers badge not included in workshop*

OUR MISSION

The Raptor Institute's mission is to inspire the San Diego community to conserve and protect birds of prey in their natural environment through comprehensive, educational programming.

The Raptor Institute

www.raptorinstitute.org